

9.15am	Registration Opens
10.00am	The Unique contribution of Volunteers during Pregnancy Birth and Beyond. The unique and distinctive contribution that volunteers bring to improving perinatal outcomes: new opportunities and reducing pressure on the 'system' Celia Suppiah CEO Parents 1st
10.10am	Introduction and overview of the day Charlotte Pace Independent Facilitator
Key Note Speakers
10.15am	Volunteering and early childhood outcomes Key messages from the Evidence Review commissioned by Big Lottery Fund Leila Baker Head of Research, Institute for Voluntary Action Research
10.25am	Investing in Volunteers, our partnership with Parents 1st Including good practice in volunteer management, the benefits of accrediting volunteer programmes, the process and the impact it has had on achievers. Trish Kiss Programme Manager, Investing in Volunteers, National Council for Voluntary Organisations
10.35am	New opportunities for improving sustainability Bev Taylor Social Prescribing Development Manager, Public Participation Team, NHS England
10.45am	Volunteer peer support and people powered public services Carrie Deacon Programme Manager, Innovation Lab, Centre for Social Action Innovation Fund, NESTA
10.55am	The Dad Factor: Making fathers count Kathy Jones Joint CEO and Head of Strategy, the Fatherhood Institute
11.05am	Questions and discussion
11.15am	Break
Themed workshops
11.45am	Evidence of 'what works' and implementing for success A. Using a framework to support evidence into practice when commissioning, designing, adapting and implementing perinatal volunteering B. Overview and insights into the A Better Start Evidence Review (early childhood outcomes) commissioned by the Big Lottery fund C. What do we know about increasing involvement of fathers in volunteering?
13.00pm	Networking lunch
Themed workshops
14.00pm	Practical examples – embedding perinatal volunteering alongside the 'system' A. Working alongside midwifery services and the Healthy Child Programme B. Sharing the Programme Coordinator experience: community engagement with vulnerable expectant mothers C. Don't throw out the baby with the bathwater! Practical solutions to measuring impact
15.30am	Plenary
16.00pm	Close